

Your Adventure Awaits Texas Brazos Trail Region

Welcome to the Texas Brazos Trail Region, spanning 18 counties in Central Texas. Travel off the beaten path through scenic byways, historic railroads, murals, and prehistoric discoveries—all filled with charm, and Texas pride.

Create memories with our TBTR Partner Counties, Cities, Historic Districts, and Heritage Sites. Explore state parks, cultural districts, and regional attractions.

Adventure along the rails, tour railroad museums and cozy towns, visit stagecoach stops, and enjoy bluebonnet and poppy sunsets. Discover historic towns with local eateries, live music, dancehalls, shops, galleries, and festivals.

Visitors can explore Museums, Exhibits, a Presidential library, sample some of Texas' Best BBQ—take in a local rodeo and discover a prehistoric site.

Celebrate a rich legacy of European migration through annual events like Salado's Scottish Gathering, Bryan's Festa Italiana, Clifton's Norwegian Country Christmas, and Czech Festivals in Caldwell & West. Discover German culture in Walburg. Historic railroad towns include Navasota, Temple, Belton, McGregor, Rockdale, and Hearne. Happy trails—your heritage journey begins here!
